Nadine Rioux Notaire Inc, located in the heart of Rimouski, Quebec, offers various notary public services that are vital for anyone navigating property transactions or legal documentation. The experiences shared by clients reflect a mixed bag of feedback, providing insight into both the strengths and weaknesses of this notary service.

Accessibility and Convenience

One of the standout features of Nadine Rioux Notaire Inc is its wheelchair-accessible car park. This accessibility ensures that all clients can easily reach the office and receive the support they need without physical barriers.

Client Experiences: A Mixed Bag

Clients have voiced their opinions regarding the services rendered at Nadine Rioux Notaire Inc. Some customers highlight the great service and the kindness of the staff, stating, "I recommend" this notary for professional assistance. The professionalism exhibited by Mr. Pierre-Antoine Ouellet during numerous transactions has also been applauded, with one client expressing gratitude for his ability to answer all questions thoroughly. However, not all experiences have been positive. Several clients reported significant issues that raised concerns about the reliability of the service provided. One client was shocked to discover that a crucial document—the "mortgage receipt"—had not been handled appropriately, leading to potential complications during the sale of their home. The oversight was reported to have been discovered only through the buyers' solicitor, raising questions about internal communication and responsibility at the firm.

Professionalism Under Scrutiny

The reviews suggest that while some clients enjoyed a professional and supportive experience, others encountered unprofessional behavior and errors. One individual pointed out basic failures in transaction management, which could lead to serious repercussions for clients relying on accurate documentation for property dealings. Moreover, another customer criticized the office for charging excessive fees, claiming, "I find that a little excessive," after being charged $94 just to verify tax payments.

Final Thoughts

In conclusion, Nadine Rioux Notaire Inc serves as a reminder of the importance of due diligence when selecting a notary public. The feedback from clients highlights the need for consistent quality in service and accountability. While the accessibility of the office is commendable, potential clients are advised to weigh both positive and negative reviews carefully before making their choice.

I would not recommend this notary at all. I had the unpleasant surprise of discovering, when selling my house, that the "mortgage receipt" had not been completed 2 years prior by the Rioux notary's office despite having paid a substantial fee for this service. I only became aware of this when my buyers' lawyer delved into my mortgage history. Had I not sold my house, I would have remained unaware of this issue as Notary Rioux failed to inform me. This was a significant oversight on their part. Notary Rioux never acknowledged any fault in their professional misconduct and refused to offer any form of compensation or apology. It took several months, and repeated requests due to the slow service, before Notary Rioux eventually resolved the issue and finalized the receipt that should have been handled years earlier. I strongly advise against using this notary's services.
