One client highlighted Christina, an amazing manager, and commended the front staff for their dedication and support. However, not all feedback has been positive. Some clients have encountered employees who they felt were rude and unprofessional. Such testimonials highlight that while some experiences may vary, there are also instances of positive interactions that significantly impact people's lives.

Considerations for Improvement

While the office aims to provide essential services, there are areas identified for improvement. One point of concern mentioned was the lengthy hour and a half lunch break, which some clients feel could be shortened to enhance accessibility for those trying to reach out for help.
