Planning and Appointments

When it comes to tax preparation, planning is crucial. It is recommended to schedule appointments in advance to ensure personalized attention during busy tax seasons.

Mixed Reviews on Professionalism

Many clients have praised the firm for their professionalism and expertise, noting that they provide valuable insights into tax strategies. However, contrasting feedback indicates that some have experienced poor communication, unresponsiveness, and even errors in tax submissions. For instance, one client mentioned that important income information was omitted, leading to unexpected reassessments and penalties.

Customer Service Concerns

While some reviews highlight friendly and helpful staff members, others express frustration over the lack of customer service. A common theme among dissatisfied clients is the feeling of being undervalued, as multiple representatives handled accounts without proper continuity or communication. This inconsistency has led many to describe their experience as costly and stressful, raising concerns about the firm's reliability.

Final Thoughts

Choosing a tax preparation service is a significant decision. Baker Tilly Ottawa LLP may offer essential accessibility features and expertise, but potential clients should weigh the mixed reviews carefully. Understanding the risks involved, especially for small businesses, can help you make an informed choice.
